When you come together in one place

Raymond Elliott

"When we come together in one place", it is imperative that "all things be done decently and in order" (1 Cor 11:18; 14:40). It is the opportunity when we come together to worship God and the Lamb "in spirit and truth" (John 4: 23,24; Rev 4 & 5). It is wonderful that brothers and sisters in Christ enjoy the company of one another; but when the set time has come, our hearts should be centered on worshipping God. This is a deliberate action on our part. Worship begins with the opening prayer. God is spirit and our spirits should be attuned with God's spirit (John 4:24). The "acts of worship" can sound too legalistic and formal for some; but if we use the term "avenues" it can be understood that singing, praying, teaching, the Lord's supper and giving are avenues through which we express our love, praise and homage to God.

The order in our assemblies when we are worshipping together can be and oft is a tradition which contributes to our worship being done "decently and in order." However, when the same "order of things" is done for decades it can easily become law and that is when tradition becomes wrong. Several years ago an elder told me that when he went off to a Christian college located in a different state, he knew that the church where he began worshipping was unscriptural because they were having the Lord's supper before preaching and not afterwards!

If a change should be made in the order of worship it would be best for it to be announced before it was time to begin. "The order of worship" could be printed and would be available to those in attendance. By doing this, there would be less confusion for everyone. Several years ago while working with a congregation in a small town, I mentioned to the song leader that I would like to make a change in the order of our worship. He was to lead the first song and then I would read from the Bible and make some remarks and we would do this more than once. My failure was that I did not inform the congregation of the changes that I had made! And this is the way things went in our worship that Sunday morning; the song leader led the first song and then I got up and read from the scriptures and made some remarks that were appropriate and I sat down. The song leader announced the number of the second song that we were to sing and when he began singing, the congregation stood, thinking that this was the "invitation song"! Lesson learned! It would be good for a congregation to make changes occasionally so that the younger generation could know that the set order was not a pattern as found in the New Testament.

"The Shepherds' Corner"

It is good that the song leader prepares his selections for the worship. Since we are to praise God, songs of praise would be excellent to lead to begin our worship. It is always appropriate for the congregation to stand when singing such songs. It would be good for the men who have been asked to lead prayers in the assembly to think beforehand what would be said in the prayer. Remember also it is to be a public prayer, that is, the prayer leader should lift his voice so all could hear. When there is a microphone, the prayer leader should speak directly into it. Remarks made when we are observing the Lord's supper should be brief and a source of encouragement for all to meditate on the death and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ; and the love of God and His Son manifested at Calvary. Remember also that prayers are offered up to God the Father (Matt 6:9). It was the body of Jesus that hung on the cross and it was His blood that "was shed for the remission of sins" (Matt 26:28); and He (Christ) walked among men so that He was tempted as we are and thus became our mediator between man and God (Heb 2:17,18; 1 Tim 2:5,6). So we pray to God through Christ. For this reason, our prayers are prayed "In Jesus name" not "in Your name."

God is spirit and "a spirit does not have flesh and bones..." (John 4:24). Preaching/teaching the word of God is a fearful responsibility (James 3:1)! Timothy received a charge from the apostle Paul to "...preach the word! Be ready in season and out of season. Convince, rebuke, exhort, with all long-suffering and teaching" (2 Tim 4:2-4). "The word" would consist of "all scripture" because they were "given by inspiration of God" (2 Tim 3:16). It is the duty of the preacher to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ for "it is the power of God to salvation!" (Rom 1:16; Matt 28:19,20; Mark 16:15,16; 1 Cor 15:1-4) We have the example of the early church giving "on the first day of the week" (1 Cor 16:1,2). This contribution was for the "Saints" in Judea who were in need of financial help. This is an example as to when we can give our monetary gifts to the Lord when we assemble on the first day of the week to worship God. Every Christian should read 2 Corinthians 8 & 9 to learn more about the giving made by the churches in Macedonia. First of all, the Christians "gave of themselves to the Lord" (8:5). Paul also wrote that their giving was a matter of "grace" (8:7).

My brothers and sisters, when we come together in one place, let us "worship the Lord with gladness; come before Him with joyful songs." "Come, let us bow down in worship, let us kneel before the Lord our Maker; for He is our God and we are the people of His pasture, the flock under His care." "Great is the Lord! He is most worthy of praise! No one can measure His greatness" (Psalm 100:1,2; 95:6,7; 145:3).

Decatur Church of Christ (04/14),

First and foremost I would like to thank each and every one of you for accepting me and loving me. Currently I am receiving treatment at the Tuscaloosa VA hospital and that was the best decision I could have made. I am learning to deal with sobriety and also am learning to be social with others such as me. I am pretty sure Mr. Doyle Rochester and Mr. Jim have been trying to reach out to me via telephone. Unfortunately my phone is out of service at this time. I'm asking that you all continue to pray for me and my loved ones. Also, if there are any pamphlets you can send me to study with it would be greatly appreciated. I look forward to hearing from you guys soon.

Sincerely,
Amanda Johnson

PS:
Please ask the ladies to pray for me too.

I want to thank all of you who have sent cards and notes of encouragement to me & Dillon. What a wonderful joy it has been to receive them. You have taken Hannah & Buddy into your arms of love and comfort. I am pleased to know they have found a happy home with all of you. You are a blessing to all of us.

Decatur Church of Christ (04/23),

Just a note to express my appreciation for all the prayers and expressions of concern for my health over the past few months. It's been amazing the number of cards (even multiple cards from some individuals) I have received. It is very comforting knowing that so many people are thinking of me and praying for me. I understand from talking to Marilyn that the thank you note I sent a month ago never arrived. So sorry that happened; maybe it will still show up one day.!

Sincerely,
Diane Russ
