

Evening Lesson

Who am I?

Introduction:

1. We need to stay humble when we're walking through our daily lives.
2. King Saul went from humble to greedy, powerful, and unfaithful to the Lord. 1 Samuel 13:14
3. King David was the man after God's own heart and was always with the Lord.
4. King of all Jesus Christ the savior the one who delivers from the evil pleasures of the world.

I. Who am I: Saul king of Israel

- A. When Saul was first anointed king he was humble
  1. 1 Samuel 9:19-27 and 10:17-27
- B. When Saul got into his reign he focused on the trophies of this world like power and wealth (1 Sam 15)
- C. Saul paid with his life because he was more focused on the pleasure of this world than the Lord.
  1. 1 Sam. 28:19; Leviticus 20:6; 1 Cor. 10:13
  2. (Matt. 26:14-15; 27:1-5)

II. Who am I: David king of Israel

- A. David's priority was always on God even against wild animals and giants (1 Sam. 17:26, 34-36, 41-49)
- B. David realized his sin with Bathsheba and turned from it (2 Sam. 12:1-14)
- C. David is recognized as faithful and was looked at as a great person by the Jews even in Jesus's time because he walked with the Lord (Matt. 12:1-7)

III. Who am I: Jesus Christ savior of the world and king of all

- A. Jesus was the epitome of humbleness (Phil. 2:5ff)
- B. Jesus delivered us from the pleasure of this world so that we might have hope with him.

Conclusion:

1. We need to stay humble when we're walking through our daily lives.
2. Seeking pleasure in worldly possessions can cost you your life.
3. If we remain faithful eventually we will be recognized for our faith
4. Jesus was the epitome of humbleness because he came down lived a perfect life, died a sinners death, but arose so that we could have a hope of heaven.